

RELATIONS WITH EDUCATION ACCREDITATION AGENCIES

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools is the recognized accrediting organization for schools. All schools are encouraged to qualify for membership. Membership dues for member schools shall be paid by the School Board from its general fund budget. Delegates selected by the Superintendent and/or his/her designee to attend the annual convention shall be reimbursed for official expenses incurred.

A written report shall be submitted to the Board yearly of the activities of the Southern Association of Colleges by a representative of the member schools selected by them for this purpose.
